Details about Julia Miller, and her family.... which may help establish the connection.... are as follows.

John Miller (1858-1952) made a chart of the family in which his father Benjamin F. Miller (1828-1910) was a sibling. The chart shows the name of each child, and gives some more information for several (such as the name of a child or what family the sibling married into). The chart shows:

"- Elizabeth
- Catherine -- Ashley Perry
- Lydia -- Fogler family -- Harold Fogler
- Leah
- Mary -- Emma and Belinda Shurr
- Julia -- Augenstein family
- Benjamin
- John -- William Miller "

These siblings were born ca. 1813 - 1830 in York Co., PA, and likely all came with their father John Miller and his second wife Christina (also Christiana, later in life called Jane; whose maiden name was Witman, and who was first married to a Jacob Klinefelter) to Marion Co., OH in 1832-1834 (reference is also made to Delaware Co., OH). My research so far has found the following details about some of the above individuals:

Lydia - born 21 June 1817; married 26 Feb. 1837 to Samuel Fogler in Marion Co., OH; died 29 March 1892 and burried in Guy Cemetery, St. Elmo, IL; 9 children.

Mary - born ca. 1822; died 21 Dec. 1894 (age 72); married to John Shurr (died 6 Nov. 1885, age 81 yrs./ 3 mo./ 20 days; both burried Marion, OH); with children Belinda A. (married to Jonathan Joseph), Clotilda (married to Adoniram Judson Blake), Emma / Mary Emily (married to James E. Bryan), and Lucinda (married to George C. Hackedorn; all marriages in Morrow Co., OH).

Benjamin - born 16 Aug. 1828; married 30 Mar. 1858 to Matilda Ecker in Washington Co., MD; died 18 Dec. 1910 and burried Mumma Cemetery near Sharpsburg, MD; children: John A., Mary Margaret, Elmer, Elhanan S., Enola G., Everett B., Annie J., Ernest W., Benjamin, D Franklin, Victor Hayes, Lorena Temperance, and Prudence V.

John - born 13 Mar. 1830; married 13 Sep 1864 to Abba Bay in Marion Co., OH; died 10 Sep. 1896, Morral, Marion Co., OH (age 66 yrs / 5 mo.

/ 28 days; burried Marion, OH, cemetery), survived by one son, William W. Miller.

Augenstein and Mr. and Mrs. John Ruff were fittingly celebrated in the Ruff home on North Chestnut Street Saturday evening, when a luncheon was served to 200 friends and relatives who called between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock. The house was artistically decorated with white chrysanthemums and a brides' bouquet arranged in a beautiful silvler basket recalled happy memories of a quarter century ago. Mr. and Mrs. Ruff and Mr. and Mrs. Augenstein were married in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Yencer, south of Shelbyville, on Nov. 9, 1904, and have made their home in Shelbyville ever since. Some five years later the men who been boon companions and who by the way wedded sisters formed a partnership in the grocery business, which they have continued successfully over a period of 20 years. [Decatur Herald, Decatur, IL, Nov. 13, 1929]

Waldo Township

WILLIAM DANIEL AUGENSTEIN, a prominent farmer and stock-raiser of Waldo township for many years, who is now practically retired, residing on a well-improved farm of 145 acres which belongs jointly to himself and wife and is situated in section 35, is one of Waldo township's most highly respected citizens. Mr. Augenstein was born October 5, 1849, on the homestead farm in Marion County, Ohio, and is a son of Daniel and Margaret (Bender) Augenstein.

Daniel Angenstein was 15 years of age when he came from Germany to America, his birth having taken place in Ellmendingen, Baden, March 8, 1822. His parents were George F. and Barbara (Baushlicker) Augenstein, also natives of Baden. Daniel Augenstein was the pioneer of the family in Ohio. He crossed the Atlantic alone, and although he had not attained the years of manhood and was unacquainted with the language and customs of a strange country, he was of so steady a character and so industrious and intelligent, that he made his way to Marion County, Ohio, without great difficulty and here sought and found work. For three years he was employed on various farms in Pleasant and Richland townships, where his wages were from $6 to $8 a month. In seeking a better paying position, he finally went to Marion, where he was employed for one year in the Baker stables as a hostler, but at no time was he able to command what would be considered now even a fair salary for his labor. Nevertheless, Mr. Augenstein was able to save enough to allow him to visit Germany in 1841, and in March of the following year he returned to Marion County accompanied by his parents.

George F. Augenstein, father of Daniel Augenstein, purchased 240 acres of land from Rutherford B. Hayes, who later became President of the United States, paying $10 an acre, on the representation of his son Daniel, who had tramped all over this section of Marion County and had noted the lay of the land and had appraised the value of the timberland owned by Mr. Hayes, much of it being black walnut of fine quality. All but six acres of the tract thus purchased was covered with forest growth. Both George Frederick Augenstein and wife died in Marion County, the former September 7, 1845, aged 62 years, and the latter, March 23, 1865, aged 72 years. They had these children: Minnie, who died in Germany; Ernest F.; Daniel; Godfrey and Barbara and George F. (twins). The father of the above family deeded his property to his six children, dividing it into six 40-acre lots.

When Daniel Augenstein returned to Germany in order to urge his parents to come to America with him, he came very near being compelled to enter the German Army and do military service according to the laws of that country. Taking advantage of another law, one which permitted the discharge of a son when drafted, if the parents sold out their home and left the country, the Augensteins left Germany and came to Ohio, as stated. Daniel Augenstein proved himself a good business man, and after inheriting his 40 acres he bought 20 acres from his sister, and to this 60 acres continued to add until he owned 400 acres, all of which he cleared. He was generous with his children during life, and at the time of death his estate of 115 acres fell to his son, John F. Augenstein. In addition to farming Mr. Augenstein raised and handled Short horn cattle and horses from imported stock.

Politically, Daniel Augenstein was a staunch Democrat and was an influential member of his party in Waldo township and Marion County. For 18 years he served as township trustee, was a justice of the peace for one term and for two terms was a member of the Board of Infirmary Directors, his death occurring in May, 1896 before his second term had expired. For many years he was identified with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. In all the relations of life he was a man who commanded respect and enjoyed in a large measure the esteem of his fellow-citizens. His burial was in the family burying-ground, on the Delaware turnpike.

On March 2. 1845 Daniel Augenstein was married (first) to Margaret Bender who was born in Huttengessas, Hessen, Germany, January 7, 1828, the daughter of Justus and Catharina (Rudel) Bender, and died in Waldo township, May 22, 1879. She was a daughter of Justus and Catherine Bender. Three of the four children born to this marriage grew to maturity, as follows: Hannah, who married John Kraner; William Daniel; and John F. In the winter of 1879-80, Mr. Augenstein was married (second) to Mrs. Malinda Jane (Overdeer) White, widow of Elijah White. She was born in Shelby County Ohio, January 27, 1827, and died October 9, 1898. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but Mr. Augenstein belonged to the German Reformed Church.

William Daniel Augenstein remained on the home farm until he was 23 years of age, almost from childhood taking upon himself the hard work of a man. He can remember his task was to plough a field when he was almost too small to reach the plow handles. His brother was 14 years younger than he and thus the hardest work fell on the one able to do it. He learned every detail of farming and stock-raising, and thus by the time he was married was able to successfully manage the farm his father then gave him. It contained 130 acres and on this he has resided ever since, later adding land which now makes the farm one of 143 acres. At one time Mr. Augenstein was one of his leading sheep-raisers of this locality, keeping as many as 100 head of Shropshire sheep, and he has been a member of the Shropshire Sheep Breeders' Association for the past 15 years. Mr. Augenstein has now turned the management of the farm over to his son, Finley Elmer, who is a great horseman, as was his grandfather, and while Shorthorn cattle and a few hogs are raised the main business of the farm now is the breeding, buying and feeding of horses. The son resides on the home farm, just across the road from his father. Another successful industry conducted on this farm is dairying, Mrs. Augenstein having customers in Sandusky, to whom she ships choice butter of her own making, contracting to sell it for 20 cents a pound the year round. The demand is always larger than the supply.

On September 26, 1872, Mr. Augenstein was married to Margaret J. King, a daughter of Henry and Marcia (Powell) King. The father of Mrs. Augenstein died prior to her birth and later her mother married William King, who is now deceased; Mrs. King died in 1886. Mrs. Augenstein has one brother, Henry T. King, who has been a traveling representative of The Marion Steam Shovel Company for the past 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Augenstein have had three children, namely: Lydia Hannah, who is the church organist of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Waldo, of which her parents have been members for the past 40 years; Finley Elmer; and Ella H., who died in 1881, aged one year and four months. Finley Elmer Augenstein was married September 12, 1902, to Ada Dearst, who is a daughter of Frank and Mary (Hoke) Dearst, and a granddaughter of settlers who came to Marion from Seneca County, Ohio. They have one child, Russell Dennis, who was born August 31, 1905.

Politically, both William D. Augenstein and his son are affiliated with the Democratic party and the latter is now serving as road supervisor. Mr. Augenstein has also served in this office, having always taken a great interest in promoting the building of fine public highways through the township. He graveled the road from his residence to the Marion and Delaware turnpike at his own expense.

PHILIP SCHWADERER , who is engaged in farming and stock-raising on a fine farm of 160 acres located in Green Camp township, was born May 7, 1848, in Pleasant township, Marion County, Ohio, and is a son of Jacob and Barbara (Pfromer) Schwaderer, both, natives of Germany.

John Schwaderer was reared in Marbach, Wuerttemberg, Germany and came to America at the age of 17 with his father, Job Schwaderer, who settled in Pleasant township, Marion County, Ohio, as one of the earliest pioneers. Job Schwaderer and his wife both died on the farm in Pleasant township. Jacob was married to Barbara Pfromer (born in Ellmendingen, Baden, Germany) and lived on the home place until death. Eight children were born to him and his wife, as follows: John; Philip; Samuel; Mrs. Mary Neidhardt; Mrs. Caroline Gresser, of Marion; Mrs. Kate Firstenberger; and two children deceased. Mrs. Schwaderer, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Neidhardt, will be 89 years old in April, 1907.

Philip, Schwaderer was reared on his father's farm of 160 acres in Pleasant township, which is still owned by his mother. He remained on the farm until a short time after his marriage, when he bought 100 acres of his present farm in Green Camp township; after his father's death he bought 60 acres of adjoining land which had been owned by his father. The greater part of his original 100-acre tract was covered with timber, which has been removed and the land placed in an excellent state of cultivation. When Mr. Schwaderer moved to the farm in 1872, his father erected a hewn-log house for him, which is still standing; in 1901 Mr. Schwaderer erected a fine, large, frame house; the large barn, which is 36 by 87 feet in dimensions, was erected in 1883. Mr. Schwaderer is greatly interested in raising fine stock and makes a specialty of French draft horses, Shorthorn cattle and Chester White and Poland-China hogs. He takes great pride in his live-stock, especially his cattle and horses, which have taken many prizes at various fairs. He has one stallion that he raised from a colt, which is worth $2,000.

Mr. Schwaderer was married February 8, 1872, to Sarah Meinhardt, who was born at Canal Dover, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and is a daughter of John Meinhardt (born in Huttengesass, Hessen-Nasau, Prussia). They have had eight children, of whom six are still living, as follows: Samuel, living in Green Camp township, who married Della Carey; John Wesley, residing upon his farm of 120 acres in Green Camp township, who married Stella Imbody and has one child-Lucille; Harvey B., residing on his farm of 100 acres in Green Camp township, who married Grace Cook and has two children-Clifford and Evadell; Bertha who married Jesse Uncapher, of Big Island township, and has one child, Fern; and David and Lydia Sarah, who reside at home. Mr. Schwaderer is a member and trustee of the German Methodist Episcopal Church.

Walter Karig

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

(http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Walter_Karig)

Walter Karig, (1898-1956) was a prolific author, who served as a U.S. naval captain. Karig authored a number of military history works on Allied naval operations during World War II. Karig wrote scripts for the television series Victory at Sea. Besides his works on naval history, Karig was a novelist, publishing under his own name. He also worked as a journalist.

For the Stratemeyer Syndicate, Karig wrote volumes in the Perry Pierce series (2-4), Doris Force series (3-4), and Nancy Drew series (8-10). Oddly 2 of the three Nancy Drew books had Helen Corning in them and Bess and George out of them.[clarification needed] Karig revealed to catalogers at the Library of Congress that he was the true author of three Nancy Drew volumes. The catalogers assumed he wrote all of the books under the pseudonym of Carolyn Keene, and this admission angered the publisher. Each work from the Stratemeyer Syndicate was the work of ghostwriter, and the publisher had no desire to reveal the true authorship of volumes in the various series. Consequently, Karig received letters from the publisher's attorney, threatening legal action - if he persisted in claiming authorship.[citation needed]

Among Karig's many novels is Zotz! (1947), a satirical story dealing with an archaeologist and linguist, Dr. John Jones. After deciphering an inscription on an ancient disk, Jones is imbued with deadly powers. For Jones can merely point at an animal or human, and they faint. If he utters the word "Zotz" while pointing his finger, the person or animal will die. Because the novel is set during World War II, there is a patriotic flavor to it. Also, much of the plot revolves around Jones' efforts to obtain an appointment to see President Franklin Roosevelt, with the hope that he can convince the President that the Allies can use his supernatural abilities to help the war effort. Karig has written himself into the novel as a beleaguered naval officer working at a U.S. Navy public information office, where dozens of people parade by his desk daily all trying to obtain appointments to meet with the "highest authority" in the United States government. Although Karig's novel is set the then present, he manages to point out that humans have not changed much in millennia. Technology may have improved, but humans still have a strong desire to destroy and to kill. Thus Karig manages to blend a satire on wartime Washington D.C. bureaucracy with ethical questions related to the advent of the nuclear war.

After Karig's death, director William Castle released a movie version of Zotz! in 1962. The cast includes (among others) actors Tom Poston, Jim Backus, Margaret Dumont, Cecil Kellaway, and Louis Nye. Despite the presence of these fine character actors, the movie deviates from Karig's authorial intents, and it becomes a vehicle for clever special effects - but little more.

Marion Star - Marion, Ohio - Nov. 25, 2005

Glenna (Augenstein) Cramer

MARION - Glenna (Augenstein) Cramer had a heavenly homecoming on Nov. 23. It was joyful and peaceful.

One of our mother's favorite Bible verses was, "Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might," Ephesians 6:10.

Our mother was born on July 22, 1916, in Marion County, to Harry and Katherine (Rengert) Augenstein. She graduated from Harding High School in 1934. She is survived by daughters Nancy (Richard) Parshall of Simi Valley, Calif., and Jo Ann Van Oosten-Judy (Gus) of Marion. Her three grandsons are Chris (Kim) Van Oosten of St. Louis, Mo., Andy (Mary) Van Oosten of Marion, and Gene (Sandra) Parshall of California. Her three great-grandchildren are Noah and Kobie Parshall of California and Kayla Van Oosten of Marion. Mom has one brother, Warren (Eileen) Augenstein. There are many loving nieces and nephews.

She was a member of the First United Church of Christ where she taught children for many years. Mom was employed by Marion City Schools in the cafeteria and as a teacher's aid. She was also a volunteer at Med Center.

She was preceded in death by her husband of more than 60 years, Russell Cramer; three sisters, June Mogg, Helen Kramer and Mabel Matthews; and three brothers, Walter Augenstein, Richard Augenstein and Rolland Augenstein.

There will be private graveside services 10:30 a.m., Saturday morning in Marion Cemetery. No calling hours will be observed. Her friends are welcome at her home after the services for lunch.

In lieu of flowers, any gifts used to carry on God's work may be made to Grace Baptist Church, 1560 Marion-Marysville Road, in care of Pastor Nick Worden, an incredibly godly, faithful friend of our mother's.

Life of a believer is not ended, just changed.

The Denzer Farison Hottinger Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Condolences may be sent to DFH1866@aol.com

Man Killed While Working In Gas And Oil Fields Near Ft. Loramie

Fell Off Of A High Derrick On Which He Was Working And Broke His Neck

Roy Vorhees, who was the field manager of the Ohio oil company, with headquarters at St. Marys, was instantly killed while at work in the Shelby county oil and gas field on Wednesday afternoon. He was at work on a derrick and when he lost his footing he fell to the ground over a long distance and in the decent struck cross bars and other pieces of timber that had places in the immense frame.

The accident occurred on the McCorkle farm, which is situated a short distance from Newport. The man had been at work there since early in the morning and there was one other man assisting with the job of repairing the derrick. They were both in a lofty position at the top of the high frame when Mr. Vorhees made his unfortunate descent and when his companion climbed down to give him possibly help he found that his neck had been broken and that life was extinct.

It was at about 2:30 o'clock when the accident occurred and the news was at once dispatched to his home at St. Marys. He was about forty-seven years of age and he spent a large portion of his life in the oil fields. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American war and was widely known in his home community and in Wapakoneta.

Since companies have been exploring the fields in western Shelby county and throughout eastern Darke county he has had supervision over considerable of the work and his knowledge of the situation there was a great asset to the men who were promoting the activities.

Arraign Six In Campaign On Slot Machines

Wapakonetta, March 17 - Arraignment of six St. Marys storeowners in probate court for contributing to the delinquency of minors today was believed to have prompted a county-wide drive for the removal of slot machines, pin games and other games of chance.

Announcement of a formal drive against the gambling devices was expected to be made today by county officials.

Affidavits against the St. Marys men were filed by Probate Judge Harry F. Wittenbrink after a band of St. Marys youths admitted they stole money and other valuables in order to play the machines.

The men who were cited for permitting the boys to visit their business places to play the games were the following: Victor Andreoni, John Lintz, William Simon, Earl Wesner, Fred Flack, and Paul Roby. Eleven delinquency charges in all were filed against the men.

Probate Judge Harry F. Wittenbrink was quoted as saying that all games in the county would be banished if it is in the power of the court to do so.

'Doorway to nature' attracts hundreds

Environmental Education Center opens to public

By KATI BEXLEY

kati.bexley@staugustinerecord.com

Publication Date: 09/25/05, St. Augustine Record

Colin Meyer, 8, who is home-schooled, used St. Johns County's salt marshes and wetlands as his classroom.

Meyer joined hundreds of people who on Saturday packed to overflowing the Guana Tolomato Matanzas National Estuarine Research Reserve's new 21,000-square-foot Environmental Education Center during its grand opening.

The newly built center is about eight miles north of Vilano Beach off State Road A1A.

The reserve spans three rivers and 60,000 acres of salt
marsh, wetlands and estuarine lagoons -- the former Guana River State Park.

"I like the hammerhead sharks," Meyer said of a life-size shark model dangling from the Education Center's ceiling.
"I like playing all the quiz games, too."

The center features stations with question games about animals and wildlife. Meyer took quizzes on each one with his father, Miles Meyer, who is also his teacher.

"This is school for him today," Miles said. "They have great exhibits with interaction that really helps you learn more."

The $6.2 million project was funded through county, state and federal governments.

U.S. Rep. John Mica, R-Winter Park, who spoke at the reserve's grand opening, said the center and reserve help provide understanding and wildlife preservation.

"This is a doorway to nature," Mica said. "The important thing is young people; our children will better understand nature from this."

The reserve is one of 26 in the nation and the third in Florida, said Kenneth Berk, reserve environmental administrator.

"A lot of collaboration between several agencies went into this," he said. "We even had $200,000 in private donations for the reserve."

Reserves were established six years ago by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. NOAA placed a satellite in front of the Education Center that will be used for scientific measurements such as tide levels, Berk said.

Upcoming programs scheduled for the reserve include a bird-spotting walk, a fire and ecology workshop and a hunter safety course.

Miles Meyer is also a marine science professor at Jacksonville University. He looks forward to using the reserve as a study guide for his college students.

"I teach an introductory class. Some people have a hard time with the concepts of how marine life interacts," he said. "(The reserve) will show them that."
